

GERMANS RETREAT AT POINTS ALONG PICARDY FRONT

The Enemy Evacuates Bucquoy, Beaumont and Hamel Sierre

(By The Associated Press)
BULLETIN
LONDON, Aug. 15.—The Canadians have taken the villages of Damery and Parvillers, a short distance northwest of Roye, according to Field Marshal Haig's official communication issued this evening. The British line southeast of Proyart, just south of the Somme has been advanced a short distance.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 15.—By the Associated Press.—General interest in the situation along the Picardy battle front has shifted to the northward, where it is confirmed that the Germans are evacuating some of their forward positions. Beaumont, Hamel Sierre, Bucquoy and Puisseux-au-Mont have been abandoned. British patrols crossed the Ancre at Auteuilville and Auvilly north of Albert last night and went some distance before they were fired upon.

Albert is still held strongly by the Germans. British patrols, on entering the town were fired upon from the Albert cathedral.

It will be remembered that the German retreat in February, 1917, to the Hindenburg line was immediately preceded by slight local retreats such as have been made north of Albert. The mystery now is whether some such plan is being carried out by the army. If this is true the situation should be clarified in a short time. Along the new Somme battle front quiet still continues except for rather infrequent artillery activity at several points. Through this section of France and especially at Amiens a fete of deliverance from the menace of the Germans was celebrated today. Amid the sandbags piled about the stately and the debris caused by German shells, a few old time residents of Amiens, a group of Red Cross nurses and some British and French officers and soldiers gathered at Amiens' great cathedral for service. It was a most impressive ceremony. The altar was decorated with the flags of France, Great Britain and the United States. The war-time congregation sat between two great piles of sandbags and the debris of the cathedral. French soldiers sang in the choir.

Extensive damage was done to the edifice by German shells during the bombardment of Amiens. Many beautiful windows have been smashed and one shell penetrated the roof and burst near the entrance severely wrecking that part of the gigantic church.

Admit Retreat
BERLIN, Aug. 15.—via London.—Admission that the Germans have evacuated positions near Puisseux and Beaumont-Hamel which lie to the south of Albert, is made in the German official communication issued today.

The text of the communication follows:
"There has been lively reconnoitering activity between the Yser and the Scarpe. Southeast of Ayeette a British patrol attack broke down before our lines."
"North of the Ancre during the last few nights we have evacuated the sector of our positions near Puisseux and Beaumont-Hamel which sharply projected into the enemy's position. It was occupied by the enemy yesterday afternoon."
"In General von Boehn's group there have been no important operations."

"In the evening the artillery activity increased between the Ancre and the Oise. Partial enemy attacks on both sides of the Avre and south of Lassigny were repulsed."
"In a thrust on the south bank of the Vesle we captured men who were occupying the railway station at Breuil. A British bombing squadron on its way to raid our home territory was engaged by our chasing forces before reaching its objective and forced to return after a loss of five airplanes."

"Yesterday twenty-four enemy airplanes and one hostile balloon were shot down."

French Make Gains
PARIS, Aug. 15.—Further gains have been made by the French in the wooded region between the Matz and Oise rivers and just north of the Oise near Ribecourt, according to the French official communication issued this evening. For the most part, however, the operations have been of a minor character.

The communication follows:
"During the course of the day minor operations have enabled us to make progress in the wooded and hill region between the Matz and the Oise. We have captured to the northwest of Ribecourt the farm and the Monolithe farm which were energetically defended by the enemy. We made prisoners."

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts In Summarized Form By Associated Press.

The fighting on the Somme-Oise battle front still continues of a minor character compared with that of the early part of the week when the Germans reinforced their line and stopped the eastward sweep of the allied forces. Nevertheless the British and the French again have been able to gain ground on two important sectors—the British a short distance northwest of Roye, where they took the villages of Damery and Parvillers and the French on the southern wing of the battle front, where they have captured two farms in the process of clearing the hills and wooded district around Lassigny of the enemy. North of the Somme between Albert and Arras the Germans are continuing to fall back and the British are keeping in close contact with them. Thus far the Germans have definitely given up the towns of Beaumont-Hamel, Serre, Bucquoy and Puisseux-au-Mont, and at several points have crossed the Ancre river with the British following closely on their trail. No official explanation has yet been advanced of the retrograde movement of the Germans over this front but it is not at all unlikely that the operations on the Somme front and the harassing tactics the British recently have employed by the enemy in establishing himself on new ground eastward with the Ancre river a barrier between him and his foes. At any rate the Heberturne salient has virtually been obliterated by the retirement of the Germans and seemingly they now will be compelled to make a readjustment of their line between the Somme and Arras.

In the week of fighting on the Picardy front, 30,244 prisoners have fallen into the hands of the British and French armies according to an official announcement. Of this number the British captured 21,844. Unofficial reports probably compiled since the front gave the number of prisoners in the allies' hands since August 8 as 34,000 and say also that 670 captured guns thus far have been counted.

The situation in Russia again is looming large. Soviet leaders have fled from Moscow, the Bolshevik capital to Kronstadt, and the Soviet troops now are declared to have begun the evacuation of Moscow. American troops have begun to disembark at Vladivostok to aid the Czech-Slovak army in its campaign in Siberia, and allied forces are chasing the enemy more than a hundred miles south of Archangel on the railroad; further allied troops have made a landing at the southwest of Archangel and are endeavoring to cut off the retreat of the Soviets, while British troops have arrived at Baku, in the Caucasus on the Caspian sea to assist the Armenians in defending this important seaport against the Turks to whom it was given by the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

Thus it will be seen that allied forces now are operating jointly on three important sections of Russian territory—on the north with a base in the White Sea, in the east with a base in the Sea of Japan and on the south in Trans-Caucasia.

Probably realization of the situation as it now affects the central powers, with defeats on the western front and their military positions in the other theaters none too secure—with the feeling in Russia daily growing more intense against the Bolshevik and German rule, and with the specter of the more than a million American already in France and more millions of them soon to be in readiness for overseas duty, important conferences are in progress at German headquarters. The German and Austrian emperors and their suits and Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff are the main conferees.

BELIEVES FOUR MILLION YANKEES CAN BEAT HUNS

Plans Call for More Than This Number By Next Summer

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Four million soldiers can defeat the German army in the belief of General March, chief of staff and present plans of the war department call for more than that number under arms next summer with some 3,500,000 of them, or eight divisions in France by June 30. These and other important facts concerning the nation's effort in the war as given to the senate military committee by General March, Secretary Baker and Provost Marshal General Crowder were revealed today by Chairman Chamberlain in presenting to the senate the administration man power bill extending the draft ages to include all men between the ages of 18 and 45 years.

President Wilson is determined to bring the war to a conclusion by concentrating all forces on the western front, including Italy.

Secretary Baker told the committee, and General March supplemented this by stating that it was the purpose to end the great world struggle quickly and decisively. For the nation not to put forth its maximum effort at once, the chief of staff declared, would be but "playing Germany's game."

Thirty one American divisions now are in France with as many more in camps in this country as a reservoir. Secretary Baker said that the accelerated program of troop movements overseas which has enabled General Pershing to organize his field army of some 1,250,000 men will be continued because of the generous action of the British government in supplying shipping.

To carry out the present program of eighty divisions overseas by June 30, nearly 2,000,000 men must be sent to France in the next eleven months. Mr. Baker would not be drawn into any discussion of the country's ability to transport men but it is known that many more than that number could be landed in the war zone at the present rate of shipments.

General March told the committee, according to the report to the senate that he was in favor of young men for the army and that the youths of 18 years registered under the new draft law now in force in France by June 30. He estimated that some 2,300,000 men qualified for full military service would be secured from the new registrants and he outlined the calls for the next year or more as follows:

August	250,000
September	200,000
October	155,000
November	150,000
December	150,000
January	150,000
February	200,000

300,000 monthly thereafter until the end of the next year. These calls would aggregate 4,205,000 against the estimate of 2,300,000 to be drawn from the new registrants, but no explanation was made of this and other discrepancies in the draft figures.

General Crowder has said that the present reservoir in Class I will be exhausted by next October 1, but Secretary Baker made it plain today that the reservoir of men now in camp in this country is sufficient to keep up the present troop movement overseas.

Plans for considering the manpower bill in the senate next Monday were blocked today because a quorum was not present and the three day recess agreement could not be set aside. However, a quorum is expected Monday and leaders plan then to vote to end the recess program so the measure can be taken up next Thursday. The senate is expected to pass the bill within a few days and then it will be sent to the house.

Movement Continues.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The draft program and plans of the war department are of such a character that the rapid movement of troops to France is continuing, Secretary Baker said today and by reason of the very great assistance given by the British government in placing so much shipping at the disposal of the American government the accelerated movement overseas.

There now are approximately 2,600,000 American soldiers in this country and overseas. Mr. Baker added. The reservoir in the United States is such that even with the exhausting for a time of the eligibles in class I, the movement of men overseas would not be interrupted.

Fourteen national army divisions already are in France, the secretary said and these have been included in the new field army organization recently announced by General Pershing. There also are twelve national guard divisions including the Rainbow organization overseas.

BRITISH VESSEL SUNK BY U-BOAT OFF NANTUCKET

Steamer Penistone is Torpedoed Without Warning

(By The Associated Press)
NANTUCKET, Mass., Aug. 15.—The British Steamer Penistone was sunk by a submarine 100 miles east of Nantucket Sunday without warning, a torpedo fired at close range killing the fourth engineer and injuring four British crewmen. The report of the sinking was made by Benjamin Daviss, executive officer of the Penistone who arrived here today with other survivors.

The commander of the Penistone was Captain David Evans. The engineer killed was Cavior Howells.

It was definitely established by naval authorities, it was stated that the Evans who was taken aboard the U-boat is a prisoner there. The Penistone left New York Friday with forty men comprising officers and crew. Twenty nine of these were landed today at Provincetown nine were brought here, and with Howells dead the only man not accounted for was the commander. Daviss and the eight others were picked up and brought her by a tug early this morning so exhausted they could not speak clearly or intelligently. They had drifted in all sorts of weather since Sunday "with only the limited stock of provisions kept aboard a lifeboat for such emergencies. All the time they had been out the executive officer had sent a tiler never getting up to permit a shipmate to steer and when he attempted to stand he collapsed. Hardy fishermen have made many shipwrecked crews off this island said they never had seen men in a worse condition.

After being removed to a naval hospital Daviss revived something and was able to describe the attack on the Penistone. The torpedo, he said, was let loose at close range. It tore a great hole in the vessel amidships, wrecked the engine and scattered burning oil over the fire room crew. Howells was killed instantly.

Thru the hole in the ship's side water poured in rapidly, filling the holds. Captain Evans ordered his men into the small boats and they stood close by watching the work of the U-boat. Captain Evans and eleven volunteers started out to save the ship's papers and the personal effects of the men. All realized that they were taking desperate chances, for the Penistone was slowing setting. This did not deter the volunteers however, nor were they frightened by the U-boat, but the whole outfit was captured. The men were ordered back to their boat and Captain Evans was taken aboard the submarine, while the German crew expressed its delight in cheering. Then the U-boat commander had four bombs thrown exactly one hour and a half after being struck by the torpedo.

All of Cruiser Type.

Washington, Aug. 15.—German submarines carrying out raids in American waters are of the cruiser type, very probably converted merchantmen like the Deutschland, which made two peaceful trips to the United States before this country entered the war. They are low speed crafts with great cruising radius carrying large crews, 5.9 inch guns and mine laying equipment as well as torpedoes.

These conclusions have been drawn by naval officers from detailed reports which have been gathered from time to time since the U-boats first appeared off the Atlantic coast last May. The largest of them probably is not more than 300 feet long and officers are satisfied they are not super-submarines which freud Germany was building.

It may now be stated that the raiders have made no effort to attack troop ships leaving for Europe and that none of them ever has been sighted by out-bound transports or conveying warships. This fact together with the general character of the operations of submarines is accepted here generally as a proof that sole purpose of the raids is to hinder commerce as much as possible and, incidentally to carry the German campaign of frightfulness to the United States.

The Germans are believed to have turned out six merchant submarines and two of them, the Deutschland and Bremen are known to have been completed before this country declared war. At least one and possibly two of these vessels are believed to have been destroyed but the others have been converted into fighting ships.

Reports from Basel however, assert that the casualties were far more numerous. These say that a bomb fell in the crowded Kaiserstrasse, killing many persons and stopping the street cars that another fell in the middle of the large station and several in its vicinity while yet more fell in the barracks and still another near Goethe's house which was undamaged.

The Basel despatch says the aerial attack has increased the panic reigning in the Rhine towns.

RED CROSS NOTES.
A Bureau of Conservation—the demand for nurses:
Under the regulations of the American Red Cross association the accounts of each chapter must be audited at least once each year by an auditing committee. Each chapter is held responsible for seeing to it that the accounts of all its branches are properly audited. Reports are now due and being called for by the national organization. It is necessary for the local chapter to make such a report and it is very important that all who have made pledges to the cause pay them in order that they may not appear on the delinquent when the report is made.
In the last drive, Illinois with a quota of $8,000,000 sent in $7,700,000.

"SPEED UP, NURSES!"
Surgeon-General Gorgas of the Army sent this urgent call to the American Red Cross which is enrolling graduate nurses for war service.
With our boys entering more and more into the fighting, he said, the need for additional nurses is imperative.
He asks for 1000 graduate nurses a week for the next eight weeks, from the whole country. The Central Division states, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Nebraska, will redouble their efforts to meet the demand. The public can help by urging every graduate nurse to enroll with the Red Cross.

From now onward the use of graduate nurses in private homes and for any other purposes than war nursing must be reduced to the minimum. The Red Cross thru most of its chapters is offering a course on "Home Care of the Sick" that will enable the women who take it to handle the ordinary ills of the household and so reduce the calls upon graduate nurses.

Patriotic women should get in touch with the Red Cross to assure adequate nursing care for our enlisted men.

WASTE NOT.
"Waste not—want not" will be a new Red Cross slogan.
Upon request of the War Industries Board the American Red Cross will undertake a new line of work, the conservation of materials now going to waste. This salvage campaign will be directed by a new bureau of conservation at National Red Cross headquarters in Washington and will call for co-operation by chapters throughout the country upon instructions given thru division headquarters.

While the Red Cross will get the benefit of the material saved or collected, the primary purpose is not to raise funds for the Red Cross but to save materials needed in the winning of the war.

A number of Red Cross chapters already have salvage or junk campaigns under way. These probably will be modified by the new policy to a certain extent and chapters not now collecting waste materials will wait until explicit directions are received before starting into the new work.

England was saved half a billion dollars worth of materials wasted before the war and this country, using the great Red Cross membership of more than 20,000,000 persons, should make a greater showing.

The War Industries Board will specify from time to time the materials specially desired and the chapters then will collect them.

AID FOR ITALY.
Franklin D. Roosevelt's visit to Rome has brought out the fact that American aid to Italy contemplates a program which will bring about the rescue of that country from the clutch of the enemy.
America will not be satisfied with seeing the invaders driven from Italian territory. It purposes freeing Italian ports from the menace of the Teuton under-seas blockade, and it intends to restore Italian commerce. The American navy is to contribute sufficient craft to block the Adriatic and make ineffective the raid of the Austrians. In addition to making possible early effectiveness of the Italian forces, capacity use of Italian ports will greatly improve the situation in France. It will relieve the French ports and the railways which are now carrying supplies to Italy. The southern ports will be especially serviceable during the coming winter if they can be made safe for the free handling of American transports. Each of them is a gate to a southern by-way, running into the Toul road to Metz.

WHO PAYS.
The lying pretense of German propagandists, that this is a "capitalist" war, and that the "proletariat" were taxed to pay its bills while the "capitalist bourgeoisie" went free, is convincingly refuted in the analysis which has just been made of the income tax revenue of the government in the fiscal year 1916. In brief, it is stated that of the $173,000,000 personal income tax collected, more than 90 per cent came from those who may reasonably be called rich, while from "labor" came only a negligible fraction.

While there were 437,000 taxpayers, nearly 8 per cent of the whole, or 13,000,000, was paid by only ten individuals. On the other hand, people of moderate means, with incomes of not more than $5,000 a year, while they numbered more than a third of the whole army of taxpayers, paid only 1-23 per cent of the whole. Again, those with incomes of $100,000 or more formed only 1 1/2 per cent of the taxpayers, yet they paid nearly three-fourths of the total tax.

Such were the returns for 1916. They demonstrate unmistakably that in that year capital paid its full share for the cost of government. The returns for the succeeding year have not yet been similarly analyzed. But there is every reason to believe that they will show still larger proportion of revenue derived from the rich, and particularly from those very classes and forms of capital which shallow or malicious agitators affect to regard as privileged above the law, and as exempt from its due share of public burdens, says the American Review.

The fact is that instead of this being a "capitalist" war for which the "common" people are forced to pay, it is conspicuously a democratic war for which accumulated capital is being compelled to pay.

MILITARY DISCIPLINE.
American women have endorsed a plan for a short course of federal education and training under military discipline for every American young man and young woman before they become voters, according to members of a committee representing fifty national organizations who have just completed a canvass of opinion of women in various lines.

The movement was begun early this year, and at the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs last May a resolution was adopted urging federal training for both women and men. The resolution was the expression of opinion of more than 2,000,000 women, organized in 10,000 clubs in America.
"Beneficial results of training in the cantonments demonstrate what can be done under a broad educational plan, when young people of all nationalities, from all parts of the country, and all classes widen their horizon thru intensive training in the essentials of life and government upon equal terms," says a statement issued by the committee explaining the objects of the movement.

"In addition to making strong, alert, clean cut, thinking Americans, the training would create a sense of individual responsibility, strengthen character and promote a higher regard for each other, for their country and the co-operation necessary for the welfare of all."

"Preparations for the training cannot wait until after the war, as the responsibility for wise government will more than ever fall upon the new voters from all environments during the reconstruction period, and they should be the wholesome, red-blooded missionaries to carry the message of orderly progress and co-operation into every neighborhood in the land. There is a deep conviction that the benefits of the proposed training will reach the heart of every home, lend constant inspiration to our national life and mean much to posterity."
"This is the most important movement before the American people today and, in addition, this peace loving nation must never again bear the great penalty of being wholly unprepared to meet unexpected violation of its liberty."—Young men and women trained to promote their own welfare and that of their communities and the nation should also be qualified to respond promptly to the call of their country in its hour of need."

A GOOD RECORD.
A saving notwithstanding increased costs:
Despite the press of the war the state of Illinois appears to be in good financial condition. One would think that with the high cost of living the State departments would show a heavily increased expense but on the contrary it appears from a letter just received the nine departments of the State have effected a saving for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth last of $290,508. Every department by the use of a wise economy was able at the end of a year to show a balance in the appropriation accorded it. To show how the departments are observing the commendation of the governor a saving for the fiscal year is taken from the report:

As result of the dismissal of the excess workers, a reduction is reported in salaries and wages of more than $290,000. Office supplies cost $250,000, $150,000 less than the $400,000 appropriated for them. For traveling expenses, the figures indicate an expenditure of $150,000 less than the $400,000 appropriated. Sixty per cent, or $250,000 of the contingent fund appropriation remains unspent.

While $400,000 was spent for repairs to state institutions, only needed improvements were made, with the result that $45,000 remains in the repair fund. A total of $90,000 is unexpended of the total appropriation for state printing.

Amounts appropriated for use of the other departments, amounts expended and amounts remaining as unexpended balances are as follows:
Finance appropriation, $53,760; expended, $22,254; unexpended balance, $31,506.
Agriculture appropriation, $468,305; expended, $331,868; unexpended balance, $136,437.
Labor appropriation, $367,357; expended, $300,114; unexpended balance, $67,243.
Mines and Mineral appropriation, $86,365; expended, $73,466; unexpended balance, $12,899.

Public Works and Buildings appropriation, $393,199; expended, $277,440; unexpended balance, $115,759.
Public Health, appropriation, $213,304; expended, $165,181; unexpended balance, $48,123.

Trade and Commerce, appropriation, $680,746; expended, $595,940; unexpended balance, $84,806.
Registration and Education, appropriation, $982,743; expended, $781,834; unexpended balance, $200,909.

The Public Welfare Department was the only exception to the general rule of unexpended balances.

Close check also is being kept on state properties in order that they may be repaired when necessary, but without excessive expense. An expert in the appraisal of buildings is now making a survey of all state properties, noting and reporting in minute detail the present and future needs. This information with possible costs is on file with the department of Finance and it will be consulted when repair programs are presented.
The tax payers of Illinois will be gratified over this showing.

GONE TO WORK.

The village pool hall looks as bare as banquet hall deserted; the loafers used to gather there, unwashed and dannel-shirted. Crowder's order, "Work or fight," brot'ring vaction, and now the pool hall is a sight, a scene of desolation. The railings of the courthouse square are shorn of all the slouches, who used to drape their persons there, and air their woes and grouches. They hung there in the long ago, content with their condition; to sit and let their whiskers grow and let their ambition grow. For living they had no excuse, their faces showed dejection; they merely threw tobacco juice in every blamed direction. But now they're working by the day, they're plowing and they're hoeing; they're rearing up two bales of hay where only one was growing. To cultivate the fertile soil they're using their arms and their bones are creaking as they toil, and they are hoarsely swearing. The dungeons of the village jail are empty now and dreary; no Richard Roes within them wall, no Willies who are weary. The skates who used to beat their wives and steal their neighbors' chickens are driven now to useful lives; they're sweating like the dickens. The war is shaking things around, from old times it's tossed us, and when it's done it may be found it's worth whatever it cost us.

IN PICARDY

(By Capt. F. C. Taylor)
"Picardy" is an old province in the north of France having on its north and northwest the English channel. It is now subdivided among the departments of Aisne, Somme, Oise, Pas-de-Calais and Yonne.

Aisne (pro. Ain) has an area of 2322 square miles. The surface is flat; soil fertile, agriculture good. Its chief rivers, Marne in the south, Oise in the north and Aisne in the center—all navigable. Its manufactures are important. Its principal town is Laon.

Somme (pro. Som) is a maritime department in the northwest of France lying near the English channel. It has an area of 2343 square miles. The surface is flat. The Somme is the only river of importance within its borders. The soil is fertile for corn, hemp, lint and hops, an inferior quality of wine is made but cider is much used. Its marshes furnish abundance of turf. It has numerous manufactures, the chief being velvets, cottons, woollens, soap, beet root sugar and paper. The department is traversed by the Northern Railway, and the line between Amiens and Boulogne. It is divided into the arrondissements of Abbeville, Amiens, Doullens, Montdidier and Peronne. Its capital is Amiens.

Oise (pro. Waz) lies in the northeast of France, and was formed of the old provinces of Ile-de-France and Picardie. Its area is 2218 square miles. It belongs entirely to the basin of the Seine, and is watered by the Oise and its affluents, the Aine and Therain; the Epte on the west separates it from the department of Eure, and Ourek (pro. Oork) traverses it in the southeast. The surface is generally flat. Agriculture is in an advanced state, and more grain is cultivated than local consumption demands. Little high grade wine is made, though cider and beer are extensively used. The department contains several large forests, the largest being that of Compeigne. Cattle and sheep are raised, and numerous principal manufactures are woolen goods, carpets, linen, calico and lace. The department is divided into the arrondissements of Beauvais, Clermont, Compeigne and Senlis. The capital is Beauvais.

Pas-de-Calais (pro. Pa-deh-kala) is formed of parts of the old provinces of Artois, Picardie and Flanders, on the English channel, between the departments of Nord and Somme. Its area is 2505 square miles. The surface is diversified from southeast to northwest by a chain of hills which separate the basin of the North Sea from that of the channel, and give rise to numerous rivers, the chief of which are the Scarpe and Lys, affluents of the Scheldt, the Aa, which flows to the North Sea, and the Caache, flowing to the English channel; these are all navigable and are connected by canals. The department has several excellent harbors, the chief of which are Calais and Boulogne. Commerce is also facilitated by the Great Northern Railway and its branches. The soil is rich in coal and turf, and is remarkable for the facility with which water is found by means of artesian wells. It is marshy in some parts, but generally fertile in wheat, hemp, flax, tobacco and oleaginous plants. The manufacturing industry is very active in producing beet-root sugar, linen and linen thread, cotton, lace, common woollens, paper, pottery ware and leather. The department is divided into the arrondissements of Arras the capital), Bethune, Boulogne, St. Pol, Montreuil and St. Omer.

Yonne, another department in the northeastern part of France, was formerly a part of the old province of Burgundy, between the departments of Seine-et-Marne, Solvay, Nievre, Cote d'Or and Aube. The area is 2781 square miles. The surface is undulating, with rich pasture lands. The chief river is the Yonne with its affluents, the Cure, Armacon and Vannes. The soil is rich in grains and produces excellent wine. The principal mineral products are iron, lithographic stones and ochre. The department is traversed by the railway from Paris to Lyons. The manufactures comprise woollens and cotton cloths, and beet-root sugar. The principal exports are timber, corn and wine. The department is divided into the arrondissements of Auxerre, Avallon, Joigny, Sens and Tonnerre. The capital is Auxerre.

TORONTO PAPER PAYS TRIBUTE TO TINGLE.

The Toronto Evening Telegram of August 7, carried the following tribute to Dr. J. B. Tingle. The paper refers to him as a famous chemist. His wife was Miss Sarah Capps of this city.

Prof. J. Bishop Tingle, of McMaster University, died Tuesday at the home of his brother, in Ottawa, of pernicious anaemia.

Prof. Tingle, B. A., Ph. D., F. C. S., F. R. C. S., was born in Yorkshire, England, about fifty years ago. He received his education in British schools, and took his Ph.D. degree in Munich. For some time he was on the staff of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and just prior to his coming to McMaster University, in September, 1907, was with the Chicago University.

At McMaster University he was universally liked and honored. He took deep personal interest in the pupils, and had trained many of the chemists whose services are now indispensable.

He was editor of the Canadian Chemical Journal, a new magazine, which has just recently appeared in Canada.

Recently Prof. Tingle had been elected to the Fellowship of the Royal Society of Canada.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Margaret, aged eleven, and one son, Alfred, who is six years old.

OFF FOR THE WEST.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamberger of Oklahoma City, Okla., and their guest, Mrs. B. C. Crockett of Kansas City, were in the city yesterday on their way home from an extended eastern tour embracing Boston, New York and various places of interest. They had been getting along very well until near Jacksonville when an accident happened to their car which delayed them somewhat.

Minnesota Wheat Lands

Kittson County, where the late James J. Hill had a 26,000 acre wheat and stock farm offers unusual opportunities.

The Payne Investment Co. now offers an attractive list of farms in that county, values ranging from $40 to $75 acre, according to location and improvements.

Read what John W. Thomas, a Morgan county man who located in Kittson county this year, says:

"The grain in this locality is looking fine. We have had an abundance of moisture and from present prospects I expect to harvest enough this year to equal the value of the quarter section of land I purchased. The climate has been ideal thus far and all the members of my family are in the best of health. If you are thinking of buying land I don't know any locality where it will pay for itself as quickly or advance as rapidly as here. The country is settling up very rapidly. Wheat, oats, alfalfa and barley are the principal crops. The soil is rich, black and deep."

Will be pleased to furnish literature and information about Kittson county farms, most of which are located near Humboldt.

Tells Aged People How to Get More Strength

Here is another link in the chain of evidence to prove that our famous cod liver and iron tonic Vinol creates strength for feeble old people.

Mr. Nelson H. Pease of the National Soldiers' Home, Tennessee, says: "I am 74 years of age and was in a weak, debilitated condition, poor appetite and did not sleep well. Vinol gave me a good appetite. I sleep well, and it has built me up so I feel stronger and better in every way. I strongly recommend Vinol for such conditions as I believe it prolongs life for old people."—For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

BELIEVES FOUR MILLION YANKS CAN BEAT HUNS

Up To The United States. Washington, Aug. 15.—In reporting the administration manpower bill extending draft ages today, Chairman Chamberlain disclosed to the senate that General March had told the military committee it was up to the United States to put enough men in France to win the war on the west front and had expressed the belief that four million Americans under one commander could go thru the German lines whenever they pleased.

All men available for military service after the present law has been amended will have been called for service by spring, General March said.

In General March's opinion the allies have complete control of the east. He said submarine attacks had been considered in planning for the shipment of 240,000 men monthly overseas. Regarding heavy artillery he said he was in doubt about it being furnished in sufficient quantity.

The airplane situation had not been mentioned, he said, but he declared he did not like it.

In answer to questions about the Russians situation, General March said American troops are "not going there in any force," and added:

"As a military proposition I say without qualification whatever the idea of trying to re-establish an eastern front in Russia with a little handful of American is simply ridiculous."

Chairman Dent, of the house military committee, announced today that Secretary Baker, General March and Provost Marshal General Crowder would appear before his committee next Monday at the opening session.

Representative Kahn of California, ranking Republican member of the committee, has just returned to Washington said today that the bill should be reported the first day. Mr. Kahn said he had talked with other Republicans on the committee and that they would give the bill their full support.

Crowder Announces Plans. Washington, Aug. 15.—Provost Marshal General Crowder announced today that plans have been made for registering the 13,000,000 additional men which will be about $2,000,000 under the selective service law when congress enacts the pending bill extending the age limits to include men between 18 and 45 years. From this number approximately 2,000,000 qualified for full military service are expected to be secured.

So urgent is the need for additional manpower, General Crowder said, that the draft machinery is being put into shape for the great task ahead without waiting for final action by congress. Men of the new draft will be needed by October 1 and in order to get them registration day will have to be held not later than September 15, and if possible Sept. 5, will be fixed as the day.

When the 13,000,000 men are enrolled, nearly 25,000,000 will have been registered since the United States entered the war. There were some 10,000,000 enrolled on the first registration day June 5, 1917, another 600,000 last June 5, and several hundred thousand more are expected to be enrolled Aug. 24.

Among other things General Crowder's statement said: "If the bill, as introduced, is passed, it will be necessary between the date of its passage and October 1 to register and begin to classify by questionnaire 13,000,000 men not heretofore included in the draft tag limits; or approximately one and one third as many men as were registered on June 5, 1917. And, when this has been done, draft calls upon the new Class 1, must start to fill the places in the training camps of those men going to France."

Entirely aside from powers the new law may confer on the government it is essential that the public shall accord the fullest co-operation. Fundamentally the processes of the selective draft rest upon the principle of heroic sacrifice that has made of the American army in this war, an establishment faithful to the best traditions of the American people. Now as in the previous registration the manhood of America is to be given opportunity to demonstrate its undying loyalty to the republic and to manifest its faith in those principles of free government for which the civilized nations of the world are battling in the most momentous war of the ages."

Existing draft machinery in the different states will be used to enroll the 13,000,000 men. General Crowder said with such additional registrars as may be necessary. The actual registration will be made in the customary voting precincts within the jurisdiction of each board. The boards have been requested to appoint immediately one or more registrars for each precinct within their jurisdiction on the basis of probably one registrar for every eighty registrars.

To Enlarge Training Camps. Washington, Aug. 15.—Plans for enlargement of several of the big training camps were announced tonight by the army general staff. Camp Hancock, Georgia, designated as a center for the training of machine gunners will be enlarged to accommodate between 50,000 and 60,000 men. An officers' training school housed in tents there now will be given barracks and quarters and the total cost of new work will be about $2,000,000.

The capacity of Camp Grant, Ill., which has been created an infantry replacement cantonment will be increased from 42,000 to 60,000 men.

LONG FLIGHT FOR ARMY

Washington, Aug. 15.—Much interest attaches in military circles to the great 3,000 mile cross-country airplane flight by 21 American and British army aviators, which is scheduled to start today from Dayton, Ohio. The flight has been arranged with a view to demonstrating the great strides made in aeronautics and to give the finishing touches to the training of picked aviators who may later fly across the Atlantic.

Major C. K. Rhinehart, U. S. A., and Brig. Gen. Lee of the British air forces are to command their respective contingents in the tour. The American aviators will fly in type "H" Curtiss planes, which have just been completed at Dayton. The British birdmen will use Avro type machines imported from England.

The squad of flyers will visit many of the important cities of the Middle West and will give exhibition flights in each city visited. The places included in the itinerary will include Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Des Moines, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago.

Amsterdam, Aug. 15.—Emperor Charles of Austria is at German main headquarters, according to a telegram from the Lokal Anzeiger from Karl Rosner, its war correspondent.

Emperor William and his advisers have been holding an important conference at headquarters, the correspondent reports and these deliberations on political and military questions, are "reaching their highest point" with the coming of the Austrian emperor and his advisory staff.

After an exchange of party greetings and the presentation of the suits, the emperors and their personal retinue proceeded to the quarters of Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff to hear their report on the military situation.

Rosner's telegram, which was sent from German main headquarters reads:

"For days past the headquarters has been the scene of important and fruitful deliberations by the Kaiser and his advisors on political and military questions. With the arrival of Emperor Charles and his political and military advisors the deliberations are reaching their highest point."

GOV. LOWDEN DEPLORES DESERTION OF SCHOOLS

Abnormal Wages Tempting to Students to Leave Studies and Go To Work.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15.—Abnormal wages being paid in industry are tempting students in high schools and colleges to leave their studies and go to work, Governor Frank O. Lowden declared in an open statement today in which he deplored the tendency to desert the class room.

"The vast work of reorganization which awaits us at the close of the war will demand trained minds as never before," said the statement. "I earnestly urge upon the people that, unless absolutely required by some industry essential to the prosecution of the war, the boys of the high schools and colleges give these years to their education."

Under present government regulations, it was pointed out by the governor, enlistment in any branch of the military service is stopped.

IN COMMAND OF ASIATIC FLEET

Washington, Aug. 15.—Admiral Austin M. Knight, who, in co-operation with the army, will direct the naval operations involved in the transportation and landing of United States troops destined for the Siberian campaign, has been in command of the United States Asiatic fleet since the commencement of the war. Admiral Knight is one of the veterans on the active list of the navy. His experience dates back to 1873, when he left Annapolis and went on the Tuscarora, to the Pacific station. During interval between that novitiate and his gaining his present high rank, he had the usual tour of the different fleets, and shore duty at Annapolis and in Washington. As is the custom in the United States Navy, he has specialized in order to bring most effective service as an expert to the navy, and, in his case, it has been in the field of ordnance and ammunition.

Few women know more of the life and needs of the soldier than she. For many years she shared the life of Gen. Logan in barracks and at frontier posts. Her only son, John A. BISHOP TELLS OF SURGERY SKILL

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Aug. 15.—Bishop Joseph M. Francis of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Indiana, who has been a Red Cross worker at the American front, in his arrival here today on a French steamship, described "miracles of surgery" which he had seen at Red Cross hospital No. 2 in the Toul sector, where he was stationed.

"Men with great holes in their abdomens" said Bishop Francis, "are soon made fit again, while bullets thru the neck, which formerly would have been considered more than grave, are treated lightly by the wonderful surgeons who are 'making over' the men mangled in the great war for democracy."

"The wounded men in the hospitals are the bravest of the brave. You never hear them whimper and it makes an American proud to be of the same blood and faith as these heroes. When I saw what the Marines did at Chateau Thierry it made me thrill with pride and there have been many cases since when I am equal to the task because of the wonderful work of the boys of the new army who are fighting so gallantly."

FIXES MAXIMUM PRICE OF SILVER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The treasury announced today it had virtually fixed the maximum price of silver at $1.01 1/2 per fine ounce.

This, in effect, establishes a world price for silver, most of which now is being supplied by the United States.

Within the last three months the government has melted down about 100,000,000 silver dollars and exported most of this to India, China and Japan for coinage purposes.

Since the law under which this was done specifies that the government shall pay $1 per ounce of silver to replace these melted dollars the government found it necessary to sell its own stocks at 1 1/2 cents above the purchase price.

Recently some purchasers have been bidding as much as $1.02 for silver to be exported, necessitating action to prohibit the practice. One condition for the sale of silver by the government now is that the purchaser shall not pay more than the standard price of $1.01 1/2 in markets outside the United States.

Director of the Mint Baker, who now makes all purchases of silver and other precious metals for the government now pays $105 an ounce for platinum; $135 for palladium, and $175 for iridium. The government has virtually established a monopoly in these metals.

APPREHENDED IN SPAIN

Washington, Aug. 15.—Robert Fay, convicted of placing bombs on ships carrying supplies and troops to Europe and who escaped after being sentenced to the penitentiary has been apprehended in Spain, Secretary Lansing announced today. He is being brought back to the United States without extradition. Fay was arrested with several other Germans, indicted, tried and convicted in New York. He was also connected with plots to destroy railroad bridges in Canada and generally committing sabotage with the purpose of interfering with the movement of supplies and Canadian troops to Europe being part of the vast agency created by Bernstorff, Boy-Ed and von Papen of the German embassy. Some months ago he escaped from the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., where he was serving a term of imprisonment and eluded pursuit until recently when agents of the state department located him in Spain.

DENIES CHARGES

Cleveland, O., Aug. 15.—Denial that his organization was attempting to cause labor unrest in ship yards or in any way to hamper the government war work was made today by J. E. McClory, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

The denial followed a protest filed with the National War Labor Board in Washington yesterday signed by Walter Drew for the National Erectors' association which declared that McClory's organization is attempting to organize ship workers into closed shops.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The defense in the I. W. W. conspiracy trial neared its close today when early in the afternoon Attorney Vandever told Judge Landis that he had no more witnesses ready. Court was adjourned with the intimation that the lots of the witnesses for the defense would be ready tomorrow morning.

there was moderate artillery activity on the whole front to the west of Porocanu the enemy attempted a new attack which was repulsed. British aviators have bombed enemy bivouacs to the north of Gievclon.

No Striking Development.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 15.—By the Associated Press.—There have been no further striking developments today in the situation on the Somme battle front or immediately north of it where the Germans have been evacuating advanced points in a manner somewhat similar to that preceding their withdrawal last year to the Hindenburg line. The enemy seems to be in some force along the new front south of the Somme where he has been driven by the allied armies. His principal force seems to be between Chaumes and Roye.

Coming to Life Again.

With the British Army in France, Aug. 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Amiens, which has been the "dead city of Picardy" since its population of about 50,000 including 40,000 refugees fled before the crest of the German offensive last spring is coming to life again.

The menace of the invader has gone, for the invader himself has been chased back toward the Somme and now some of the peaceful residents who had been refugees for months are creeping back. Today street after street thru the city was entirely deserted but here and there the inevitable little old woman who would not leave her home would come to her bomb or shell splintered doorway as horse drawn or motor vehicle clattered thru the thoroughfares.

These vehicles carried men, some times officers and soldiers of Great Britain, France or the United States and sometimes civilians who have lived for years in the now shadow of a city, on their way to mass in the great cathedral of Notre Dame which, despite the damage from German guns and bombs, retains the title of the most beautiful in all France. The service was to celebrate the deliverance of the city from the Germans and thanks were given to the allied arms, which accomplished the delivery.

Before the altar surrounded with red, white and blue flags of Great Britain, France and the United States and with the assistance of a choir of French soldiers, mass was celebrated. From the pulpit a priest eloquently told his hearers, sitting among sandbags and debris, the history of the cathedral. Amiens is still the "dead city of Picardy" and the emptiness of its shops, buildings, dwellings, streets and markets has a depressing effect. But Amiens is coming to life again.

That was evident at mass in the cathedral today.

Small Infantry Attack.

With the British Army in France, Aug. 15.—(By The Associated Press).—Aside from patrol activities, the enemy's infantry has been contenting itself with digging some shelter for itself and in making another small attack in the Fouquescourt region. This was speedily broken up by the British fire. The enemy guns which are quite active at several points seem to be firing from a considerable distance. They are also active in the region of Albert which is strongly held. But the advanced posts to the north have been drawn and batteries moved slight back.

PLAN CONSOLIDATION OF TELEPHONE PLANTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Postmaster General Burleson today issued an order to all telephone companies to confine all extensions and betterments to meet war requirements and vital commercial needs and to proceed as expeditiously as possible with plans for consolidating and unifying telephone plants, where the consolidation is desired by the public. Mr. Burleson announced the appointment of Nathan E. Kingsbury, vice-president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and George W. Robinson, president of the Tri-State Telephone and Telephone company to investigate and carry on negotiations for the unification and consolidation of the various telephone companies operating in the same communities.

AIR BATTLES ALONG AMERICAN FRONT

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 15.—By the Associated Press. Wednesday was the most active day in the air for some time along the American battle front. One of the American planes attacked a German Rumpier machine and fired one hundred shots under its tail. The German disappeared but apparently was under control. Another American machine forced a German to run for his life.

was believed to have submerged. A report to the navy today says when the submersible appeared and opened fire on the schooner, the crew took to the small boats and have been landed at Cape May. The schooner was set on fire by the shells. When the planes and two submarine chasers were sighted the submarine submerged. One of the planes flying low dropped a depth charge where bubbles, presumably from the wake of the submarine were observed. The chasers then closed in and let go several bombs. There was no evidence of wreckage but the submarine did not reappear.

Bath, Me., Aug. 15.—The five-masted schooner Dorothy Barrett, the victim of a German submarine near Cape May, N. J., yesterday, was owned by the G. G. Deering Company of this city, the builders, and was valued at $150,000. The Barrett, a vessel of 2,088 tons gross, was proceeding to a New England port with coal.

ANTHRACITE COAL SHIPMENTS A RECORD

Figures Issued Show Increase of Over 300,000 Tons.

Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—Shipments of anthracite in July attained a high record and with two exceptions were the largest ever reported in any one month.

Figures issued by the anthracite bureau of information today shows shipments of 7,084,775 gross tons for the month, against 6,867,669 tons in June and 6,724,252 tons in July last year, indicating increases of 217,106 and 360,523 tons respectively.

The two occasions when the July shipments were exceeded were in March this year, when 7,276,777 tons were hauled and in October, 1917, when the tonnage reached 7,110,950.

For the first four months of the current coal year the shipments have amounted to 27,268,073 tons compared with 26,283,113 tons for the corresponding period in 1917.

NEW GERMAN COMMANDER.

Paris, Aug. 15.—(Havas Agency)—General Hans von Boehm, the German "retreat specialist," has been appointed to the supreme command on the Somme front. The newspapers believe that this change in the German command is highly significant. The German withdrawal north of Albert as looked upon as the first application of his tactics.

General von Boehm and his former command, the German Eighth Army stood the brunt of the Allied pressure on the Marne salient previously to the withdrawal to the north of the Vesle. The German troops engaged in the fighting east and southeast of Amiens have been under the command of General von der Marwitz and von Hutter and in the group of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria.

OBJECTIONABLE WHEAT DEALING. An elevator man was in the city yesterday and remarked that the new wheat crop had been moved with great success generally, cars being furnished by the railroads promptly and loaded as promptly by the elevator managers who endeavored to return the empties loaded just as soon as possible. The man said one thing was objectionable. Some men who go thru the country buying up small quantities of wheat, hold the cars a day or more extra on the side track and then send them off partly filled. A small sum was made thus by the dealers but it works a hardship to elevator men who have invested large sums of money in their plants and pay attention to the business, and almost always sending back fully loaded cars, the day after they are received and even the same day sometimes.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Fight in the Furrows.—Secretary Houston says, "American farmers last year, and again this year, revealed the true American fighting spirit and ability to meet serious situations. They will not let the war fail because of deficient food production. Let us sow liberally for a big harvest in 1919. It has been called the Liberty Wheat Harvest. We all hope it will be. Let us undertake the task with the determination that we will sweat our blood for many more if need be, for we are a Prussian domination. Let us fight in the furrows."

Morgan County's Quota.—The minimum acreage of wheat expected of Morgan county is 38,888 acres. The maximum acreage suggested is 64,814 acres. Our slogan should be, "A field of wheat on every farm."

Wheat Smut.—There was some wheat smut in the southeastern part of Morgan county this year. This infected wheat should not be seeded without being treated. The treatment recommended for the stinking smut in wheat is the use of formalin solution made up of one pint of formalin to thirty gallons of water. From one half to one gallon of this solution is used to each bushel of wheat. It is sprinkled on the wheat, which is mixed in the ordinary way recommended for the treating of oats. The wheat should be covered for about two hours and then thoroughly dried before seeding, unless seeding follows immediately after treatment.

Straw.—Farmers have been continually reminded of the fertilizing value of straw. At pre-war prices the value of straw was about $7.50 per ton for fertilizer purposes. When burned nearly $4.00 of this amount was lost to the soil. Burning the straw stack is consequently very expensive fun. It is not in keeping with good farm management. At present straw is needed in many army cantonments. Quotations on No. 1 oat straw in Fort Worth, Texas, are $17.00 per ton, according to the U. S. Bureau of Markets report of August 7th. Probably more straw will be baled this year than under ordinary conditions, especially in the western states.

Patent Stock Foods.—As general thing these are not worth the money. All the nutrients, included in most of patent stock foods on the market, can be secured in a much cheaper form. The liberal use of home grown feeds supplemented when needed by a little oil meal or tankage, is sufficient to produce better gains than are ever obtained by the use of high priced prepared feeds. This office will help any farmer in Morgan county find out what his patent stock food is really worth.

Patent Stock Remedies.—The Ohio State University recently sent out a warning to the farmers of that state against the use of so-called remedies for hogs, cattle, and sheep which are sold by agents and others. It recently developed in that state that a so-called remedy for hogs contained a large amount of poison and that the hogs to which it was given have died.

At least one farmer in Morgan County has had a similar experience. The manufacturer for the hog remedy tried to blame it on to cockle burr poisoning. If any farmer in Morgan county wants all the facts in the case he can get them by applying at this office. Patent stock foods and patent stock remedies are a good thing for the average farmer to leave alone.

Tractor School.—The College of Agriculture, University of Illinois will offer this coming fall and winter, a series of war courses in farm tractor operation for the purpose of enabling men and women to prepare themselves as tractor operators. Two weeks will be required for the individual student to complete the course. Any man or woman 16 years of age or older will be admitted to this course.

WEMPLE STATE BANK IS NOW A REALITY

Well Known Private Bank Is Organized Under State Banking Law—C. F. (Frank) Wemple Is President of New Organization—List of Stockholders.

Certificates of organization and a list of stockholders of the new Wemple State Bank of Waverly were filed for record with C. W. Boston, circuit clerk and recorder, yesterday.

The papers were dated August 14 and on that date the new state bank took over the business formerly conducted by the private bank of Wemple Brothers.

The Wemple State Bank has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000 and a surplus of $25,000 fully paid.

Five hundred shares of stock have been issued. The stockholders of the new organization and the total number of shares held by each follow:

Edward Wemple	40 shares
Frank Wemple	64 shares
Wilbur Wemple	62 shares
Jay Wemple	35 shares
Lester Wemple	62 shares
Leland Wemple	35 shares
Clarence Wemple	35 shares
Russell Wemple	35 shares
Edith Wemple	35 shares
None Named	35 shares

A meeting of the stockholders was held immediately after organization and the following were chosen:

President—C. F. (Frank) Wemple.
Vice President—L. E. (Lester) Wemple.
Cashier—P. W. (Wilbur) Wemple.
Directors—Edward Wemple, F. H. Wemple, Wilbur Wemple, Jay Wemple and Leland Wemple.

By the organization of a state bank from the Wemple Brothers bank, one of the oldest private banking institutions in this part of the state, passes out of existence. The bank was organized in 1877.

During the 41 years of its existence the bank has seen some of the worst financial storms in the history of the country. That it survived all of these storms and continued to grow and prosper is a fine tribute to the careful, conservative and successful business methods established by the bank's founders. This same careful management will be followed in conducting the affairs of the new Wemple State Bank.

A COSTLY CAR.
P. Denny of New York City was in the city yesterday on his way home from the Pacific coast where he had been on a tour in his costly Simplex car. It was certainly a fine machine and the owner said it cost $10,500. He went to Zahn's garage to have the car placed and while there showed some parts of the car to a number present. To an expert it surely would have been a wonder. He raised the hoods and showed the remarkable mechanism of the engine and adjacent parts so complete in every respect. One contrivance was an electric bulb which was attached to a cord wound in a receptacle and capable of being unwound and enabling the operator to examine all parts at night. He said the various parts were hand welded, no machine work or castings used. Although it was a ponderous, seven passenger affair the car was traveling alone and said a gallon of gasoline would take him ten or eleven miles an hour and in California even more.

COUNTY CAPTAINS AND REGISTRARS CONFER

Perfect Plans for Registration of Women of Morgan County Saturday, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Garm Norbury Heard in Interesting Discussion.

A registration conference of Morgan county captains and registrars was held at the public library Thursday afternoon, when plans were perfected for the registration of women. Saturday, August 17, Mrs. Garm Norbury was heard in an interesting talk on "Registration." Special emphasis was laid upon the need of having every woman over sixteen years of age "promise to do something."

Mrs. Norbury prefaced her remarks by an interesting account of the life of officers' wives at Camp Devens, Mass., where the speaker spent a number of months. The women at the camp are strenuously occupied from morning until night, being called up on for services of wide variance.

For instance, one officer's wife had, all in a day washed windows, jerked sodas, taught folk dancing, acted as secretary and served as hostess for the soldiers' dance in the evening. The speaker emphasized the fact that if there had been registration of women in the town adjoining the camp, the proper woman for the proper place would always have been readily secured.

The rules pertaining to "who are aliens" were reviewed, and the registration card proper was concisely and logically explained. The registration places Saturday will be the Ayers Bank building, Hopper's shoe store and Bethel A. M. E. church, and the hours from 1 to 5 p. m. The call to register will be given by a bugler, Henry Irving of the Boy Scouts, under command of Fred Darr.

IRVIN S. COBB

Unquestionably the foremost figure in the world of American letters today—a brilliant writer, keen observer, delightful humorist—is Irvin S. Cobb. His volume "Paths of Glory" detailing his experiences in Belgium in the early days of the war touched a new high water mark in war reporting.

He comes to the chautauqua fresh from a visit to the western front with a vivid story of the war as it is today. In the power to make his words scintillating pictures of the thing he describes, he has no peer in America. He has a stereoscopic pen. You can see around behind his people and you know they are alive. He shows you the front of some one and you see that he has one suspender button missing on the back. He is the most interesting and altogether human writer in the world. His lectures at chautauquas have been the biggest attraction of the year.

He will be inducted into service at New Rockford and will leave that city August 26 for Camp Lewis, American Lake, Washington. DOWN WITH THE CARPET BAG

We occasionally glimpse the incongruous and the bizarre even in this progressive day. We have seen men make darn fools of themselves over freak election bets, dalliance with the flowing bowl, and attempts to raise C. Chaplin moustaches. Words fail as when we contemplate the fantastic consequences of women's compliance with the dictates of Dame Fashion. But, can you imagine any sane individual carrying an old fashioned carpet bag on his travels? Or can you conjure up the picture of any manufacturer with temerity enough to finance a "come sack" of the hideous monstrosity that Grandpa used to "tote?"

Neither can we! Yet, a New York newspaper under recent date quoted a prominent Chicago leather merchant as predicting, on account of the scarcity and high cost of leather, a general reversion to the ancient traveling companion. Either the leather man was unbelievably ignorant of conditions affecting his own business or, he was "spoiling" the reporter. We incline toward the latter opinion.

The truth of the matter is, that even if leather were withdrawn entirely from the traveling goods field, these articles would still be made of any number of materials preferred to carpet.

In fact leather substitutes of the pyroxylin coated type have proven so superior to the majority of leathers available for popular priced suit cases and bags that, for a long time past, they have been steadily replacing leather for this purpose.

Except in the very highest priced bags and suitcases, the leather used for pasting over the cardboard frame is little more than camouflage. Its service is poor, its tensile strength infinitesimal. On the other hand, a leather substitute like fabricoid, has the beauty and feel of the very finest leather, wears better than any except the best grain leather and does not crack, tear nor peel. In addition, it is water, grease and stain-proof and cleanable with soap and water. Millions of yards of this material are being used in place of leather in various industries every year and millions more could be produced if necessary.

With this knowledge in our possession, we need suffer no anticipatory shudders over the possibility of lugging our pajamas and tooth brushes around the country in a carpet bag.
